

Notes

Be in the right place at the right time. Luck helps, however, you can improve your luck by being where musicians are performing.

Your success is based on your practice.... study... and concept....along with your knowledge of the business of music.... and your interaction with people.

Though big business is our ultimate employer.... music.... and our performances....are the engine that keeps the business alive.

People buy value,. and people buy a whole,. well- rounded person in the long run.

Your value is what creates your opportunities.

Everything requires a plan.
You must write your plan for success on paper.

In this modern environment.... the general public is more inclined to buy..... a “name” performer.

An aim in life is the only thing worth finding, and it's not to be found in foreign lands, but in the heart itself.

.....Robert Louis Stevenson

Success is largely a matter of tactful and harmonious negotiation with other people.

.....Napoleon Hill

Learn the success stories of your trade.

.....Jim Rohn

The saddest aspect of life now, is that science gathers information faster than society gathers wisdom.

.....Issac Asimov

Music is too large for any of us to capture it all, even the geniuses.

Focusing on not making a mistake raises the odds of it happening, we seem to attract what our attention is on.

.....Dan Jacobs

The first sound after silence, should be your best.

.....Arnold Jacobs