

NOTES

“I hate traveling”
.....Itzhak Pearlman

What it's all about... is that you are not at home... and you don't have the normal creature comforts that make life easy. This is much easier for young people than for older people. The road is difficult, in that the big routine is getting to the job, playing your best, and dealing with the time off

which also includes traveling.

It takes strength to play an instrument, but a different strength than you might think.

Art is making a thing, and then trying to make a better one.
And you keep doing that until you die and that's a pretty good life.

Be sure to treat the audiences and the local promoter as friends, in addition to all those who are helping you. Be nice to everyone. Make friends!

Whether at home or on the road, there is no success without saving your money!

Get plenty of rest.

We know where we are,
but know not where we might be.

.....William Shakespeare

Be strong, but not rude.

Be kind, but not weak.

Be bold, but not a bully.

.....Jim Rohn

Jobs fill your pocket, adventures
fill your soul.

Jamie Lyn Beatty

I am not the same, having seen the moon shine on the other side of the world.

....Mary Anne Radmacher

When overseas you learn more about your own country than you do the place you are visiting.

.....Clint Borgen

Life begins at the end of your comfort zone.

....Neale Donald Walsch

Two roads diverged in a wood and I took the one less traveled by.

.....Robert Frost

The purpose of live is to live it, to taste the experience to the utmost , to reach out eagerly and without fear for newer and richer experience.

.....Eleanor Roosevelt

Life is either a daring adventure
or nothing at all.

.....Helen Keller

Travel makes one modest, you what a tiny place you occupy in the world.

.....Gustave Flaubert

If you reject the food, ignore the customs, fear the religion and avoid people , you might better stay at home.

.....James Michener

To travel is to discover that everyone is wrong about other countries.

..... Aldous Huxley

Travel far enough and you meet yourself.

.....David Mitchell
